FULL BODY
VITRIFIED TILES

STRENGTH YOU CAN SEE DURABILITY YOU CAN FEEL

Crafted with precision and engineered for performance, Fullbody tiles are built for high-traffic spaces that demand strength without compromising on style. Manufactured using state-of-the-art technology, each tile maintains consistent color and texture throughout its body, making it highly resistant to wear, scratches, and deep abrasion.

Ideal for both residential and commercial applications, our Fullbody range is available in a variety of surfaces, including Matt, Punch, and Polished finishes — designed to suit diverse architectural needs.
